

Building Your Pathway to Bar Success

1

Start with the End in Mind!

At the end of your law school journey, you will need to pass a bar exam to practice law. We want you to start thinking about that now.

2

Plan for Bar Prep.

The best way to prepare for the bar exam is by taking a commercial bar prep course the summer after you graduate from law school. But, the choices can be confusing -- there are a number of them available on the market, and they can be expensive.

3

An Exclusive Discount...

To ease the burden, Maryland Carey Law has an exclusive partnership with Barbri. It allows our students a very steep discount for high quality, complete bar preparation.

4

The Choice Is Yours!

We strongly recommend that every student opt into our institutional partnership with Barbri. It will give you the highest quality bar prep at the lowest price.

5

Decision? In August.

We don't need your decision just yet. But start thinking about it. All students will be asked at 1L Orientation in August to make a binding decision to opt-in or opt-out of the limited partnership.
